

"Many of the smartest and most interesting conversations about city building in Memphis are convened by ULI Memphis. They identify relevant and emerging issues and provide the right platform to discuss them openly and intelligently."

—Tommy Pacello, Memphis Medical District Collaborative

Connect. Learn. Give back.

ULI convenes people from all parts of the real estate industry—individuals with diverse experiences who want to build better communities—to study and share best practices. Upcoming programs can be found on our website at memphis.uli.org. Most programs are offered at no additional cost to ULI Memphis members.

Programs & Initiatives

For members who feel passionately about the programs ULI should offer its members and the community and are able to prioritize and select the best program ideas from a long list of great ones. Contact Mike Hammond mike.hammond@kimley-horn.com

Young Leaders Group (YLG)

Members under 35 create a unique setting for the leaders of tomorrow's real estate related companies to interact, both professionally and socially with the leaders of today, while providing responsible leadership and transferring knowledge in the use of land in order to enhance the total environment. regionsmart

The 2017 Regional Strategy Summit
Powered by the Mid-South Mayors' Council

The RegionSmart planning committee works with members of the Mid-South Mayors' Council to produce the annual RegionSmart event in April which attracts over 300 thought leaders from the tri-state region to engage in regional collaboration. Contact Paul Young: paul.young@memphistn.gov

Urban Plan for 3.0

A day-long simulated planning experience, Urban Plan will be offered in communities throughout Memphis in order to offer opportunities to better understand planning processes. Legos, maps, and spreadsheets are all part of the fun as teams of participants respond to an RFP. ULI always needs volunteers to support these programs. Contact Rashana Lincoln: Rashana.Lincoln@uli.org

Technical Assistance Panels

Launched in 2015, ULI Memphis provides technical assistance programs to nonprofit and governmental agencies to address pressing land use questions and provide professionally credible solutions.
